ACADEMIC CIRCLE MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Women's Foreign Policy Group's Academic Circle membership offers your students the chance to connect with women role models from across the field of international affairs. Academic Circle membership is open to career centers, departments, Washington semester programs, and schools who want to offer their students access to our Young Professional Network mentoring roundtables, online and in-person career programming, global affairs programming, and our network of international affairs professionals.

Academic Circle Memberships are available for the calendar or academic year (January 1–December 31 or June 1–May 31). To register, please complete the form below.
