STUDENT & YOUNG PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP

WFPG membership is open to students and young professionals that are committed to global engagement and the promotion of women's leadership in international affairs. Our unique combination of educational programs on international issues and leadership development allows our members to continually enhance their knowledge and contacts in this fast-changing field. WFPG Members are drawn from across the international affairs community and include international organizations, the government, and the corporate, nonprofit, diplomatic, and media sectors.

As a WFPG Student/YP Member you will receive:

- Unique networking opportunities to interact one-on-one with women leaders and scholars working in international affairs at WFPG events and mentoring fairs
- Invitations to frequent programs on international issues featuring prominent speakers in New York and Washington, DC
- Special student/YP-member discounts to intimate seminar-style programs and free attendance at mentoring events
- Publication of name and university/affiliation in online membership directory
- Program highlights, transcripts, and WFPG newsletters

Student Membership: $55 per calendar year

All full-time students are eligible. Please submit proof of your full-time student status with your application.

Young Professional Membership: $110 per calendar year
